

2016 Creative STORAGE<sup>SM</sup> CONFERENCE

June 23rd 2016 at the DoubleTree Hotel, Culver City, California

AN ENTERTAINMENT STORAGE ALLIANCE<sup>SM</sup> EVENT

Woody Woodhall, President, Allied Post Audio

BIOGRAPHY

"Woody Woodhall, CAS is President of Allied Post Audio in Santa Monica, CA and is an award winning supervising sound editor, sound designer and rerecording mixer. He has sound supervised and mixed feature films, documentaries and for television he's VO recorded, sound edited and mixed hundreds of episodes of programming for MTV, Comedy Central, Food Network, Nat Geo, History, USA Network and VH-1 to name a few. Current television mixing includes 11 seasons of the series "Mystery Diners" on Food Network, 2 seasons of "Museum Men" for History Channel as well as the first season of the series "A Wicked Offer" for the CW. Woody is author of the college textbook, Audio Production and Post Production, used at universities across the world. Woody also heads the Los Angeles Post Production Group (LAPPG) where he shares his filmmaking expertise alongside other working professionals on a monthly basis for the LA post production community. His latest venture is L.A. Post Fest, a worldwide editing competition - L.A. Post Fest - Create Your Story in Post."